

Minnesota Habilitation Coalition Day at the Capital

Several MTS program participants attended the Minnesota Habilitation Coalition's Day at the Capital on Feb 8th. They learned about state budget issues that could impact their lives, met with a legislator and attended a rally. MTS supports program participants who are striving to develop self-advocacy skills.

